Crooked Creek Christian Camp

Shepherd's Inn is a small retreat center designed to enhance the retreat options at Crooked Creek Christian Camp. Tucked into the edge of the timber, the facility features a wrap-around deck which culminates in a screened-in porch.

Upon entering the building, guests are greeted with a spacious and airy great room featuring a cozy fireplace as the centerpiece of the charming living room area. Sharing this space is the kitchen and dining table with seating for 12. The kitchen has been stocked with home amenities and includes a stove, microwave, refrigerator and dishwasher. Main floor also houses 2 bedrooms and a library complete with study guides for personal and group devotions.

Climbing the open staircase leads guests to the upper loft where there is another space for intimate gathering or personal study. This small space features a large arched window and overlooks the main floor great room. The upper loft bedroom includes two single beds.

From main floor guests can either use the stairs or the elevator for accessibility to the lower level. Here our guests will find yet another area for conversation including a table for playing games or study. Lower floor also houses three bedrooms, and a walk-out exit for immediate access to hiking trails.

Each of the bedrooms at Shepherd's Inn includes a private bath, and each has been designed to enhance the privacy of our guests. All bed linens, furnishings and towels are provided at Shepherd's Inn, and care has been taken to individually decorate each room.

Shepherd's Inn is offered as a place of retreat for individuals or small groups up to 16 persons. Shepherd's Inn can be rented either in its entirety or by the room. Weekend rental will require a minimum fee. Day rentals are also available for individuals or groups. You will provide your own meals in Shepherd's Inn.
