

FOOD SERVICE

Camp's food service receives high ratings from our guests. Come enjoy the camp and leave the work to us!

- Full food service is only available at the Retreat Lodge Upper Level.
- With advance notice, we are able to work with many special dietary needs.
- Meals are prepared for a minimum of 16 persons
- If using Camp's full food service at the Retreat Lodge Upper Level a minimum of 2 meals is required
- Final meal counts and dietary restrictions are to be reported 2 weeks prior to your arrival. Changes to these counts and restrictions after the 2 week deadline may incur a surcharge.
- You will be charged for the actual number of meals served or 90% of the called-in number, whichever is greater.

OTHER MEAL INFORMATION

For those who prefer to prepare their own meals we offer the following options:

Retreat Lodge, Upper Level

This kitchen is not available for guest use.

A refrigerator and microwave in the upper level meeting area may be used by anyone renting the upper level. You will need to provide all serving and eating utensils and there are no facilities available to wash dishes. Groups providing their own food service on this level are not to fry foods.

Retreat Lodge, Lower Level

The kitchen in the lower level may be used by groups renting the lower level or the entire building. This kitchen is not designed to feed large groups but is stocked with tableware for approximately 50 persons and some cook/bakeware.

Pavilion

This spacious kitchen is fully stocked and ready for guest groups of up to 150 persons. Enjoy full use of the commercial stove, dishwasher, and other amenities to make large quantity cooking easy!

Shepherd's Inn

Designed to accommodate groups of up to 16 persons, this kitchen has been stocked with home amenities including stove, microwave, refrigerator and dishwasher.

Activity Center

Our meeting room has a small kitchenette with sink, microwave and refrigerator and works well as a catering kitchen.

POLICIES AND GUIDELINES

CROOKED CREEK CHRISTIAN CAMP

WASHINGTON, IOWA

Creative Christ-Centered Camping

MISSION STATEMENT

Crooked Creek Christian Camp serves the spiritual development of children and adults in the Midwest by providing Christ-centered programs, excellent facilities and generous hospitality in a setting that celebrates God's creation.

GUIDELINES FOR GROUPS

All groups are expected to plan activities and maintain conduct upholding the camp's goal of building Christian character.

- Prohibited are: alcoholic beverages, illegal substances, firearms, fireworks, candles, snowmobiles, and the use of motor-bikes and horses on foot trails.
- Campfires are permitted only in designated campfire rings.
- Smoking is not permitted in buildings or woods and is discouraged anywhere on the grounds.
- Pets are not permitted in any of the buildings or on camp grounds overnight.
- The pond, pool and waterslide are not to be used by guests without prior arrangements with camp staff.
- Food and beverages are not permitted in the cabins.
- Report broken equipment to camp staff.
- Instructions are posted in each building for clean-up and other general usage. Please abide by all posted instructions and return equipment to the location in which you found it.
- Motor vehicles are to be driven on the gravel lanes only; please keep vehicles off the grass.
- Please supervise all children's activities AT ALL TIMES to limit injury and property damage.
- Use of Styrofoam products at camp will result in a daily service fee unless you carry your trash out with you.

FACILITY RESERVATION POLICIES

This policy allows us to plan for camp activities and also maintain a quality experience for persons using our camp. Camp programming takes precedence over all guest group reservations. Deposits are non-refundable except as noted and are subtracted off the total bill at time of payment.

September through May:

- Reservations will be taken one year in advance with deposit required at that time.
- Groups wishing to come annually must rebook for the comparable date within one week following departure.
- Should guest group not rebook within that week, the date is open to other groups to reserve.

June through August:

- Weekend reservations will be taken three years in advance with deposit required at that time.
- Groups wishing to come every two or three years must rebook for the comparable date within one week following departure.
- Should guest group not rebook within that week, the date is open to other groups to reserve.

POOL POLICY

Pool time is divided into two 90 minute sessions. If there is no other group at camp the day of your pool time, or if the other guest group chooses not to use the pool, your group will be given the opportunity to reserve and pay for both 90 minute sessions. Pool time must be scheduled at least 2 weeks prior to your stay with us.

Please DRIVE SLOWLY on Camp Grounds!
Children or wildlife may be around blind curves.

ACTIVITY CENTER

Camp programs take precedence over rental groups. If inclement weather or some other unforeseen occurrence forces camp programming to use the Activity Center unexpectedly, the camp administration will work with rental groups in order to reschedule or find a mutually satisfactory solution.

Reservations

- Overnight guest groups have priority over outside groups to reserve the Activity Center.

Weekends

- Weekend guest groups must schedule a time three months prior to their arrival or Activity Center becomes available for outside groups.
- These times must be between 8 am and 10 pm.
- Camp reserves the right to limit time scheduled by any group at the Activity Center.
- If the Activity Center is still available, rental groups may reserve it upon arrival.

Weekdays

- Activity Center is available for scheduling one year in advance during weekdays.

Policies for Use

- Clean, dry tennis shoes are required inside the building
- No bare feet on climbing wall; tennis or climbing shoes required
- Climbing wall participants must tie long hair into pony tail
